Introduction to Biblical Spiritual gifts

Gift Descriptions and Characteristics

Spiritual Gifts- Any ability that a Christian believer is given by the Holy Spirit and is used to edify the body of Christ.

During Pentecost the Holy Spirit filled the body of Christ and gave supernatural gifts to the Church so that they can do the work of Christ (Acts 2:4) and build the Church. We are still called to build Christ’s Church until his second coming (Mathew 28:18). Paul writes about the spiritual gifts the most in the New Testament, and has given four lists of gifts. These are not an exhaustive list but they are the only ones talked about in the Bible.

All persons that believe that Christ Jesus is their Savior has been given a Spiritual Gift to be used for building Christ’s church. We are all called to use our gift to serve others and administer Christ’s grace to others (1 Peter 4:10). As the body of Christ it is each of our responsibility to be good stewards with our time and our gifts so that the whole body functions properly and efficiently (1 Corinthians 12:12-31).

Here are some notes that may help you utilize your gift better within the body.

- We need to exercise our gift and not neglect it.(1 Tim 4:14, 2 Tim 1:6)

Use your gift regularly so that through experience and practice you learn how to use it in accordance with Christ's plan. This applies to some more than others such as teaching or evangelism.

- All gifts need to be used with wisdom and maturity to edify the body (1 Corinthians 14)

Paul talks in 1 Corinthians 14 about order within the church body as well as in the service. He reminds us to be orderly, mature, and practical in the way we exercise our gifts. He also reminds us that these gifts are for the edification of the church body (1 Cor 14: 4, 5)

- Weigh everything against what scripture says (1 Cor 14:29)

Remember that the Bible is basic instruction. If something does not agree with what the Bible says it is not from Christ.

- Remember that some people have multiple gifts.

Many of the gifts mesh together in their workings. For example Administration and Leadership are very similar in their workings and responsibilities. Often times a person with one of these gifts will exercise the other at the same time. We need to find where we best utilize our total gift, passions, and abilities package within the Church.

- Aspire to the greater gifts (1 Cor 12:31)

Many say that the meaning of this passage is that there are greater gifts than others such as Prophecy (1 Cor 14:5) and that we should aspire to have those gifts. This belief contradicts what he says in CH 13:2 where he states that if he has Prophecy but not Love he is nothing. Remember that if we do not exercise our gifts out of Love for Christ then it is nothing.

Paul goes on to talk after this passage and talks about Love being the greatest gift. Please read 1 Corinthians 13.

“Am I an Orphic or a Limb?”

Spiritual Gifts Survey

Directions: Proceed to the following pages and begin answering the groups of questions. Answer all of the questions in column B in each grouping. Rank each question from 0-3 and put your ranking in column A. Here are the rankings that you are to use.

0= this does not describe me

1= rarely does this describe me

2=this statement sometimes describes me

3=this statement is very accurate about me

At the end of each group add up the total of all the numbers in column A.

After you are done with each group if you felt that overall that group of questions describes you well think about it and give some examples of how the Holy Spirit may have displayed these characteristics in your life.

After you have gone through all 16 groupings, use the list following the survey and write your total score next to each gift in the table. Mark the gifts that you ranked highest on, and proceed to Part 2 of the packet.

After the Survey there are descriptions and characteristics of each gift. If you are unfamiliar with the gifts you ranked high on please go to this section and familiarize yourself with the gifts that you ranked highest on.

Note: We did not include the Gifts of Healing, Miracles, Tongues, or Interpretation of Tongues on this survey because people with these gifts should already be aware that the Holy Spirit has gifted them with these and have exercised them at times.

The Passions of my heart

What are the passions of your heart?

Passion: An intense or overpowering emotion such as love, joy, hatred, or anger.

Fervor, Obsession, Infatuated, enthusiasm, Zeal, Delight

What things drive you to have emotions such as Love, Joy, Hatred or Anger and how can you apply these to your ministry within the Church Body. As Christians we need to be passionate about one thing: bringing Glory to Christ. We do this by worshipping him and sharing Christ's Gospel to people that have not experienced his unlimited Grace and Love. For our church to fully accomplish its goals we need you to serve in areas of need that you can be passionate about. In the following questions we will ask you what areas of ministry that you think you could serve passionately in.

1. What drives you? What could make you live everyday with Passion?
2. Who do you want to serve? Who do you want to give your time, money, and effort to serve?
3. What do you get excited about when you think about ministry?
4. If Christ gave you the option of never working again on the condition; that you did your choice ministry the rest of your life; what would you do?

My Experiences

Your experiences in life, whether they occurred before or after you turned your life over to Christ, make you a source of wisdom, compassion, or wisdom to everyone else in the Church. These experiences may be wonderful joyful times or extremely painful. Whatever it is the Church can greatly benefit from you sharing these with people. Whether it is a counseling session, mentoring, or a support group these are valuable to the growth of the people around you. Take time and list 3 painful experiences in your life and 3 Joyful experiences. Please do not discount anything.

Three painful experiences in life : These can be times when someone sinned against you or you sinned against someone. With these experiences Christ might use you to warn others of the consequences of sin or work through painful times.

“I know you better than you.”

Another's opinion

The last part of the FIT packet we are going to ask two other people that know you well or have worked with you in the ministries of the Church. This is very important to the accuracy of this packet. Sometimes we think we know ourselves good, but that view of ourselves is skewed because of our desires, ideologies, humbleness, or ignorance to our abilities and giftedness. We might disagree with the third parties' opinion but we still need to take it into account when trying to figure out where you can be best utilized in the ministry of the Church.

Directions: Print off two of the opinion sheets (part 5) in this packet, fill out column A on the Spiritual Gifts graph with the top 4 gifts that you felt you display. Then request that two people that know you well and are Christians fill them out. We suggest that if you are married that you give one to your spouse, provided they are a Christian. Also we would suggest that you choose people that have worked with you in the ministries of the Church, even if they are from your previous Church, these people will know your Gifts and Abilities best. No matter the situation Choose the two people that you believe know you the best. If these people are unfamiliar with the Spiritual Gifts give them the descriptions of each of the Spiritual Gifts to help them understand better.

After you have received the feedback take into consideration what the other people's opinion was, pray about this and talk to them about it, especially if you disagree with them. There is not a spot on the final summation page for this section, but do let these people's opinions affect what you write down.

“Now what”?

Summation sheet

This sheet is the final step to the FIT packet. Please write your final results of all the sections of the packet. Once you are finished please share this with the people you are in community with. If you want to serve within Solano Community Church contact Dave Monk or Joel Wright to set up a meeting to discuss where you are best gifted, able, and passionate about serving. Make sure to bring this final page.
